

Graphic Communication

Develop and present your own personal brand logo as if you were a freelance designer. It should be based around your name or an aspect of your name and convey your style/personality in its design.

Key aspects:

- Include your name or initials
- Show aspects of your personality/style – how would you be described by others?
- Should be fully developed, aesthetically pleasing, and professionally presented.